Subdivision: Brubaker Lot Addition Plan – The Copies of the subdivision prints were signed by the board chairman.

Old Business

Per Capita Tax – The Supervisors are still considering a plan to replace the per capita tax. New notes were included in the packet. Raising the Real Estate millage is probably the way the supervisors will replace the per capita tax loss. A decision will be made closer to budget time.

Application for County Aid – The application has been submitted and approved. Final steps will be completed when the road project is completed.

ARPA Application – The funds were received and moved to a new account at The Northumberland National Bank.

Education – The Secretary is going to the PSATS Budget Class. It is in Cumberland County. - Member*: $ 35.00
August 24, 2021 Class: 9:00 AM – 11:30 AM

Advertise the job again – It was requested we advertise for the maintenance position again. Try the shopper.

New Business

T-tag Bids – Bids were presented Supervisor Snook asked for additional information. Are the Ford Trucks constructed with Aluminum or Steel bodies? More information will be presented at the next meeting.

Zelenkofske Axelrod – Hiring them to help with dispersing ARPA Funds? The firm will be invited to the August meeting.

PSATS – Business Meeting? No interest.

Paxtonville Park – Tree down on the Pavilion. The Secretary was asked to check with Kreighbaum to see if we have coverage for the park. If not, the Supervisors will consider a donation to pavilion repair.

Road Millings - It was requested that we add milling to Ted Reitz driveway to keep runoff off the road.

Reviewed Letters:

Snyder County Planning Commission – Mervin Martin Poultry Barns being converted into a swine barn. FYI

Complaint – Scrap yard on East Market. That property is not in Franklin Township.

Planning and Community Development Letter – A letter informing us of a plan revision due to the 10-year cycle end in 2023.

Supervisor Karl Zerbe made a motion to adjourn meeting. Meeting was adjourned at 8:15 P.M.

Respectfully submitted,

Kathryn A Shea, Secretary-Treasurer
